

Parker and O'Grady, LLC is pleased to announce that former long-time partner, William J.

O'Grady, has retired from his position as First Justice of the Westfield District Court and will be rejoining Parker and O'Grady, LLC in an "Of Counsel" capacity. Until 2014, Attorney O'Grady had practiced civil and criminal litigation in state and federal courts since 1980. He was appointed to the bench by Governor Deval Patrick in 2014. Parker and O'Grady, LLC welcomes the return of Attorney O'Grady and his expertise that will now be available to the firm and our clients.

