

Attorney Cheryl A. Parker

Attorney Cheryl A. Parker is no stranger to Southamptton, having grown up in town and attending local schools. Cheryl attended Williston Northampton School in Easthampton and went on to attend Union College where she earned a Bachelor of Arts cum laude in 1979. She then went on to law school at Western New England College School of Law where she graduated with a Juris Doctor in 1983.

Attorney Parker worked throughout her law school career where she gained invaluable practical experience, which she continues to use to help her clients to this day.

Cheryl began her solo practice in the Trading Post corner of Southamptton, Massachusetts in March of 1984. Her office has since moved down the road to its current location, but her dedication to her clients has never changed.

Her thoughtful, thorough attention allows clients to know that their needs and concerns are being addressed. In short, she listens to clients, answers their questions, and proceeds to resolve their issues with an expertise that comes only from years of experience and caring.
